

You Are Invited to a...

Murder Mystery Dinner

Sunday, October 7th, 2007

Doors open at 6:00 pm

Murder Becomes a Habit

Presented by
Yosemite Entertainment Production (YEP)
& Have Murder Will Travel

Written by Kris Corey

Featuring an all local cast of characters

Join us for this one of a kind Murder Mystery Dinner
One night only! Very Limited Seating

When: Sunday, October 7th, 2007, Doors open at 6:00

Where: Hotel Charlotte

Menu: Crab boats & Olive Crostini appetizers
Charlotte Fresh Salad

Wild Salmon, Chicken Sauté Sec or Charlotte Steak
Potatoes & Mixed Seasonal Veggies,

Crème Brûlée and coffee or tea

Price: $49 includes: Murder Mystery Performance, Dinner,
Costume Contest, Prizes, Tax and Tip. (No host bar)

Make your reservations today! 209-962-6455

Engage your detective spirit with Murder Becomes a Habit. This original murder-mystery written by Kris Corey will be paired with a delicious multi-course dinner cooked up by Victor and team at the Hotel Charlotte.

The mystery is set in Groveland in 1922 when a big-city mogul arrives in town and begins buying land up for sale (and then some!) He seems to get Daisy Lu and the property of ole man Curly as well, much to the dismay of Jack. Some town folks support his efforts and share in his vision while others are skeptical, others are hurt and some are just passing through trying to have a peaceful meal. At a gala dinner party at the Charlotte Hotel a murder takes place. The town Marshall needs your help to solve the mystery.

The performance features local favorites:

Charlie Mills, seen in the Cabaret Charlotte evenings,

Barbara Klahn, a long time Pine Cone Performer

Kris Corey, this mystery's writer and great actor

Nancy Robichaud, director and performer herself

And a few special guests in cameo roles including
Lynn Uphthgrove in her debut performance.

Each table takes on a special persona as guests play a roll in the outcome of the mystery. Come dressed in your fanciest 1922 attire, think what the Charlotte might have been like in its first year of operation with Hetch Hetchy construction in full swing, the town is booming....And you are enjoying a special night out when....A murder happens.....Be here.

Theatre du Jour from the Hotel Charlotte, Downtown Groveland